

Shawn Thomas

CHRISTIAN RECORDING ARTIST

The Ministry of Aaron's Revival Project (ARP)

Shawn Aaron Thomas is a Contemporary Christian singer/songwriter and worship leader based in South Carolina. As a "CCM" artist (Contemporary Christian Music), many of Thomas' original works are included in the CCLI (Christian Copyright Licensing International) Library.

Shawn lives in Upstate South Carolina with his husband of 17 years, and currently serves in ministry at Seneca Presbyterian Church as the Director of Music, Arts, and Communications.

In addition to recording and audio production, Shawn has enjoyed work in media production, broadcasting, and digital content all as part of a ministry outreach. For several years he hosted "Worship Together" as an online social media feed and Christian content provider including weekly "Good News" shows, live "worship breaks," and opinion talk shows. Worship Together continues to serve as an extended production outlet for Shawn's ministry, and even released a short film called, "Passion & Resurrection" a couple of years ago.

He is the owner/operator of Shawn Thomas Studios, providing audio recording, production, and mastering services to independent artists, songwriters, and bands. He participated as a voting "Grammy" member of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences from 2009-2015, and is a producer for Christian Music Industry worship track providers such as "Worship Backing Band" and "Loop Community."

For more than 20 years, Shawn's ministry has received critical recognition from OutMusic, The Stonewall Society, RightOutTV, and QNation. In addition, his service to the community has been acknowledged by The Reformed Catholic Church of the United States, The State of Arkansas Ambassador of Good Will Program, Long Beach Pride in California, and various independent and denominational congregations.

Fun facts:

Shawn has self-published two books, is a comic book enthusiast, and is a preacher's kid!

The Purpose and Mission of The Ministry of Aaron's REVIVAL Project (ARP) is to share the grace message of God's love shown in the living Word of Jesus Christ, and to encourage personal responsibility, Holy self-reliance and obedience, and the development of conviction and values in order to promote Christian Unity. To learn more about ARP, its mission, and how you can donate/support, visit www.AaronsRevivalProject.com.

For more information — email: ministry@aaronsrevivalproject.com phone: (561) 635-5052 mail: "The Ministry of ARP"/Shawn Thomas Studios, 3118 Six Mile Hwy, Central, SC 29630
www.shawnthomasonline.com www.aaronsrevivalproject.com

